

I hav been a listener of K-Love radio for several years and there have been times I really needed to hear the words of the music they play. I have talked to others that feel the same way. THere is so much "other types of news and music" in the area and believe K-Love has helped many and helps made my area a better place.Don't take this away.